Dear Mr. Koerner:

This letter is to inform you that Boeing Realty Corporation (BRC) will be installing four wells on the Sunrider property located at 1452 Knox Street in Los Angeles, California (Site). The wells will be located in the central and southern portion of the Sunrider property, between the two existing warehouses as shown on the attached Figure 1. Field activities will start on 17 October 2006 and may take up to four weeks.

The equipment on-Site will include one sonic drilling rig with a three-man crew, a support truck, and an oversight geologist. Soil and water generated from the activities will be placed in roll-off bins and Baker tanks that may be stored on-Site up to an additional two weeks (week of November 27th).
